DEDICATION

ON THIS TENTH
ANNIVERSARY OF HALES
FRANCISCAN HIGH SCHOOL
WE DEDICATE THIS YEARBOOK
TO ALL THE ADMINISTRATORS,
FACULTY, STAFF, PARENTS AND STUDENTS, WHO HAVE CONTRIBUTED IN SO MANY WAYS TO MAKING THE
HOME OF THE SPARTANS
A CENTER OF BLACK PRIDE.

COVER THEME

The black, red and green of the Liberation Flag represent our blackness, the blood that has been shed and our hopes for the future. The black history paintings, which are reproduced on our front endsheet with the permission of the DuSable Museum of African American History are the work of a young and talented black artist, Mr. Eugene Eda (Wade).

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

At the opening of school Mass Mr. Moffa swore in Student Council President, Larry Lawrence, who in turn administered the oath to his fellow officers.

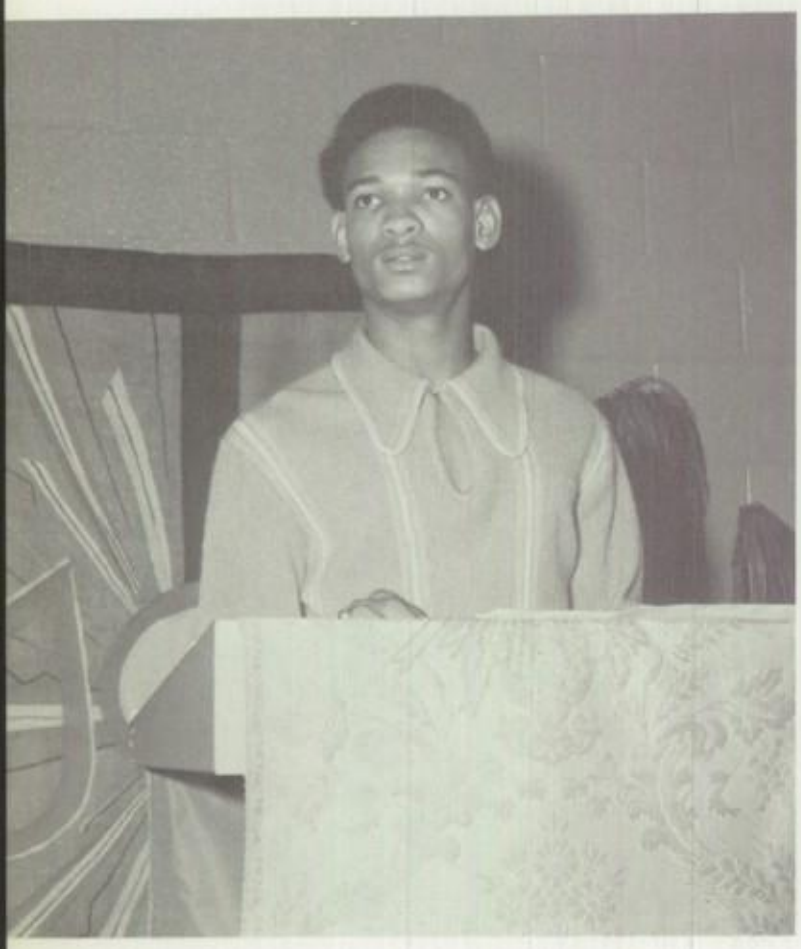
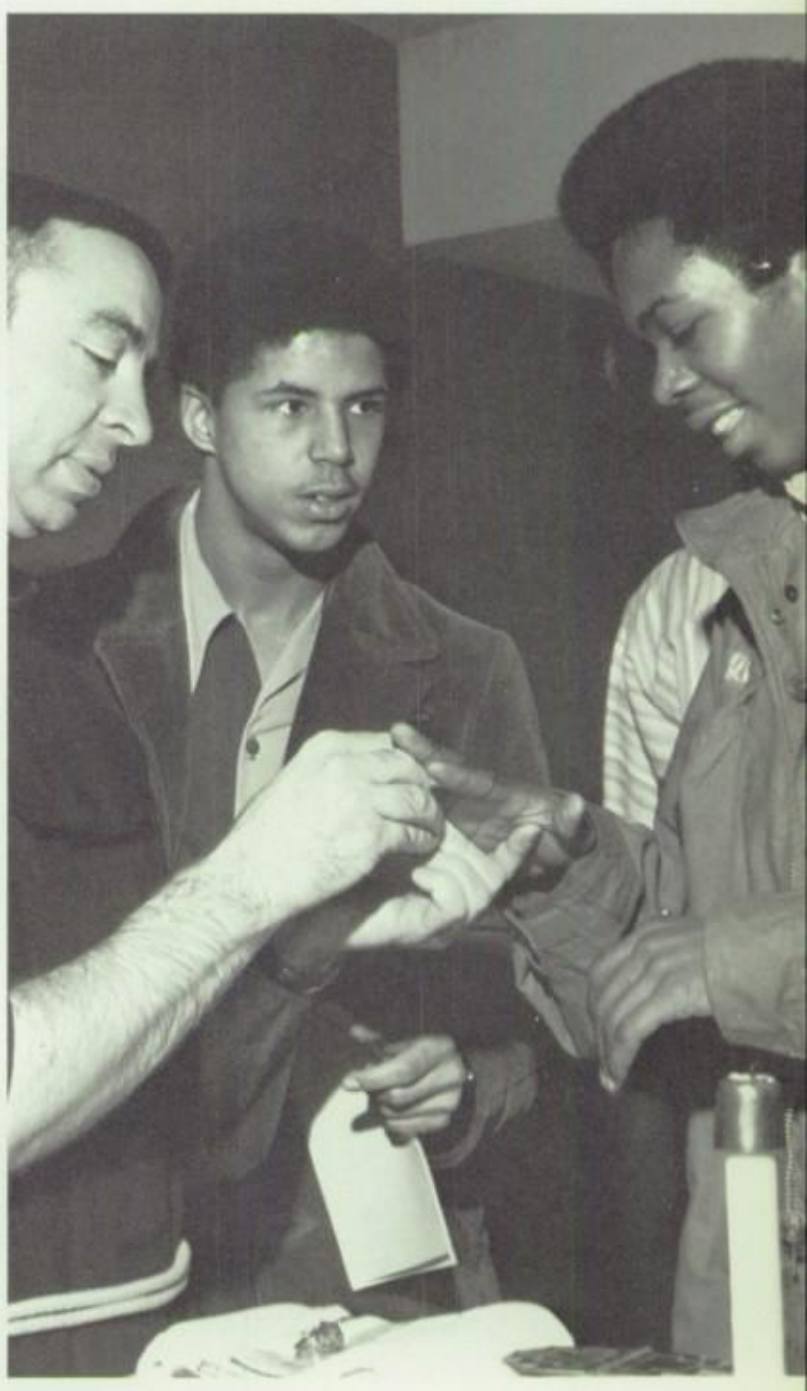
Fr. Robert was the principal celebrant of that Mass that officially opened the school year.

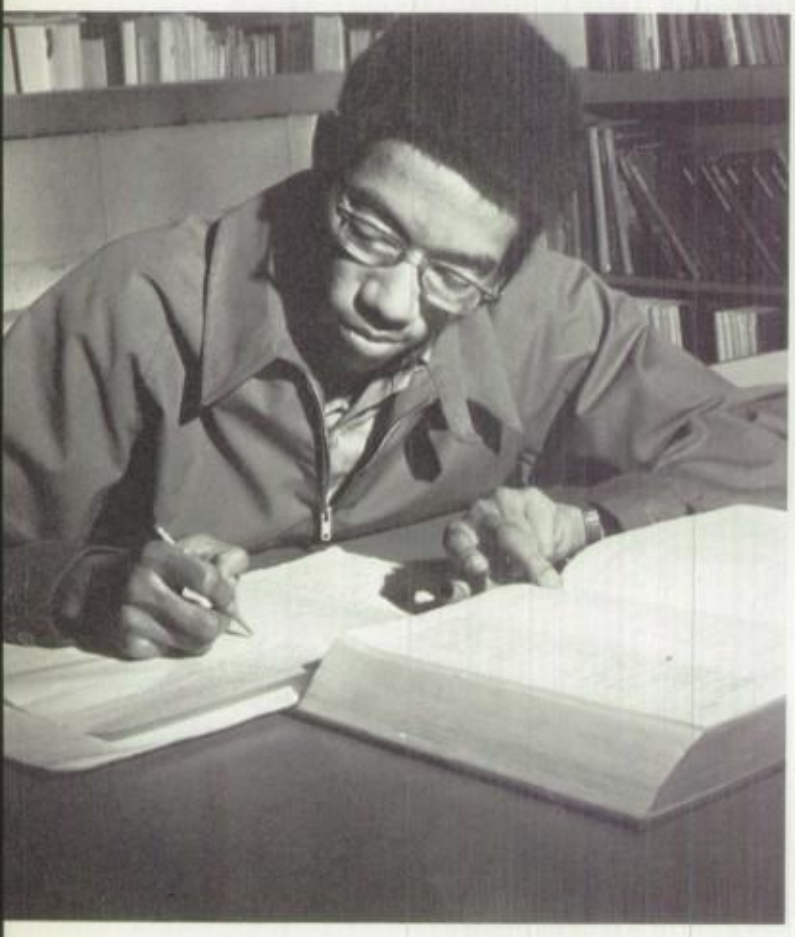


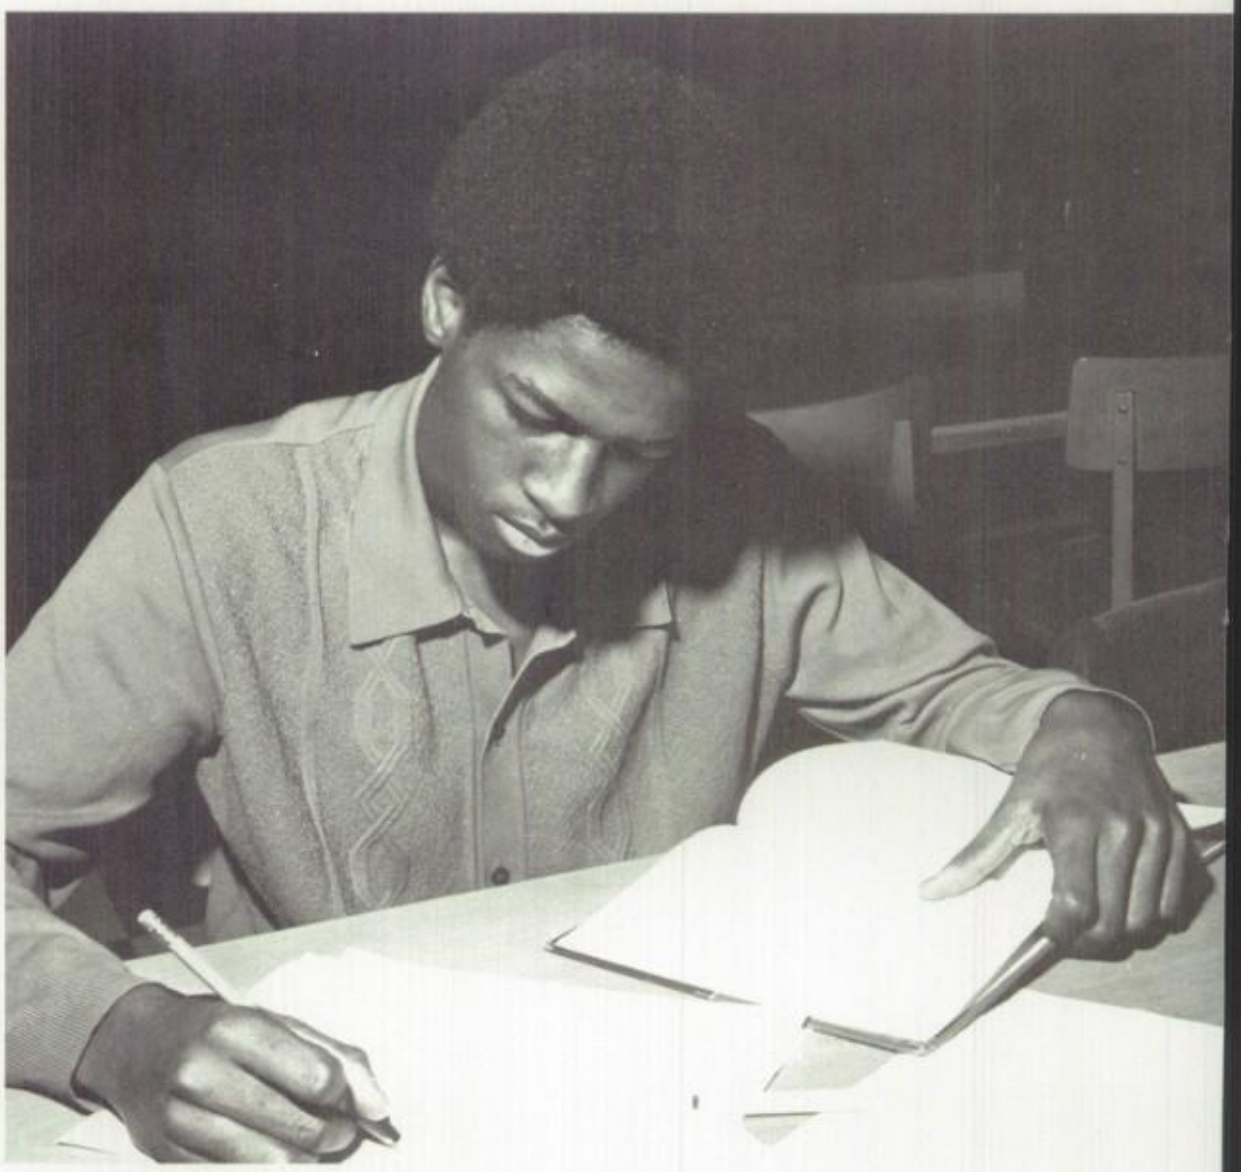
Mr. John Brennan and Miss Bel Hinton were married this year. Congratulations and best wishes from all Spartans!

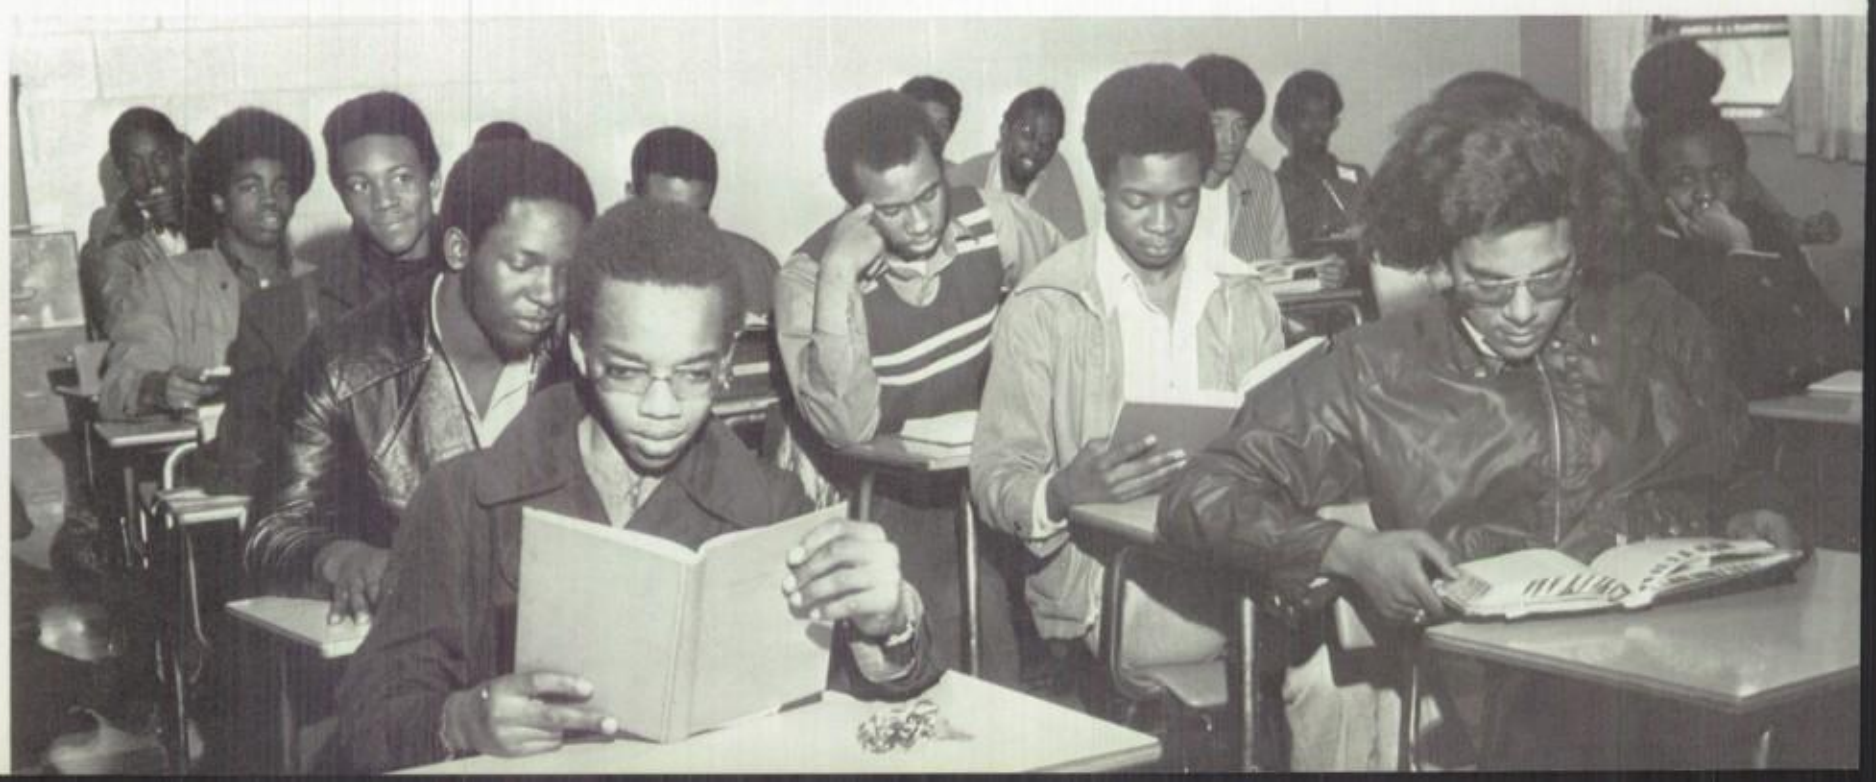


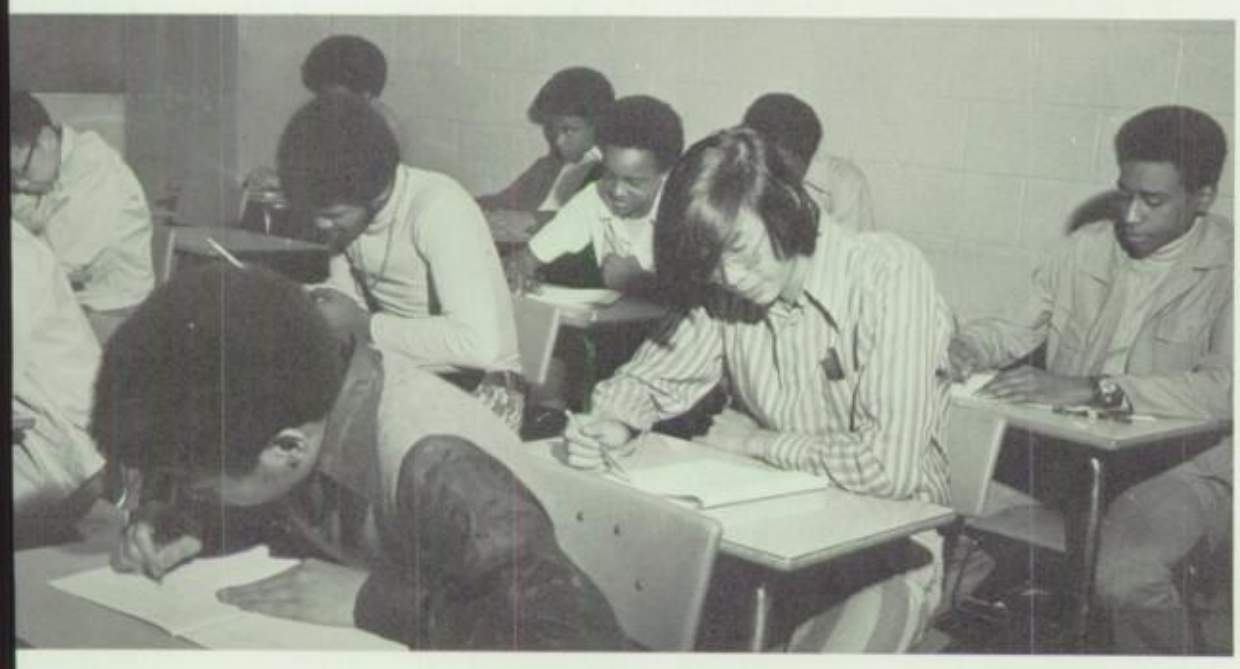
At a Mass celebrated by Fr. Kenneth Brigham, class rings were presented by Fr. Eugene, Junior Class Moderator.

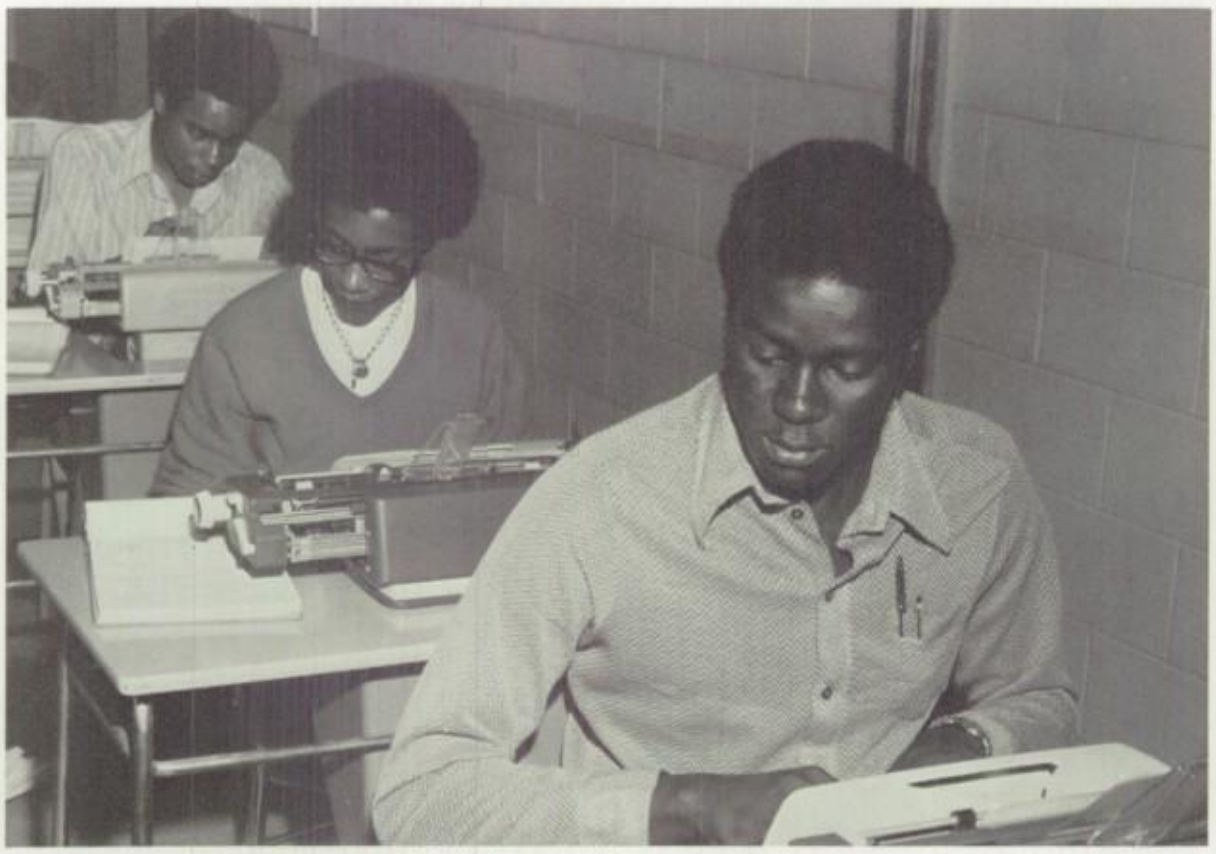
Study is almost a pleasure in our spacious library and well lighted classrooms.

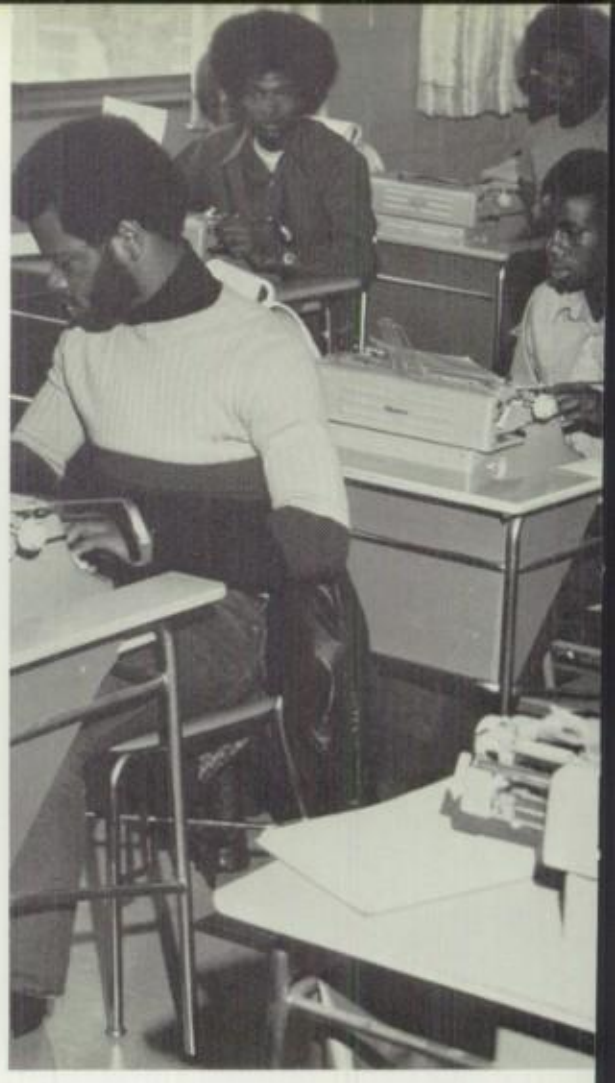




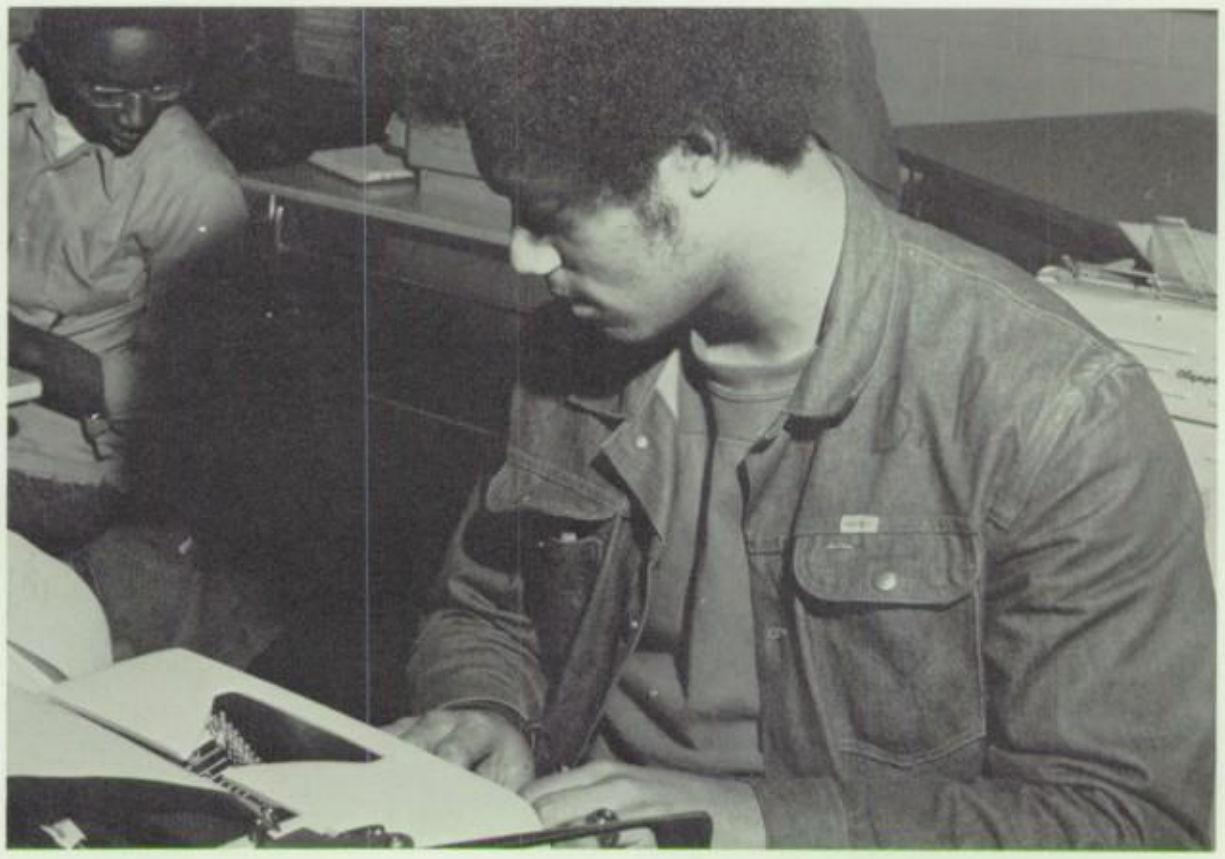


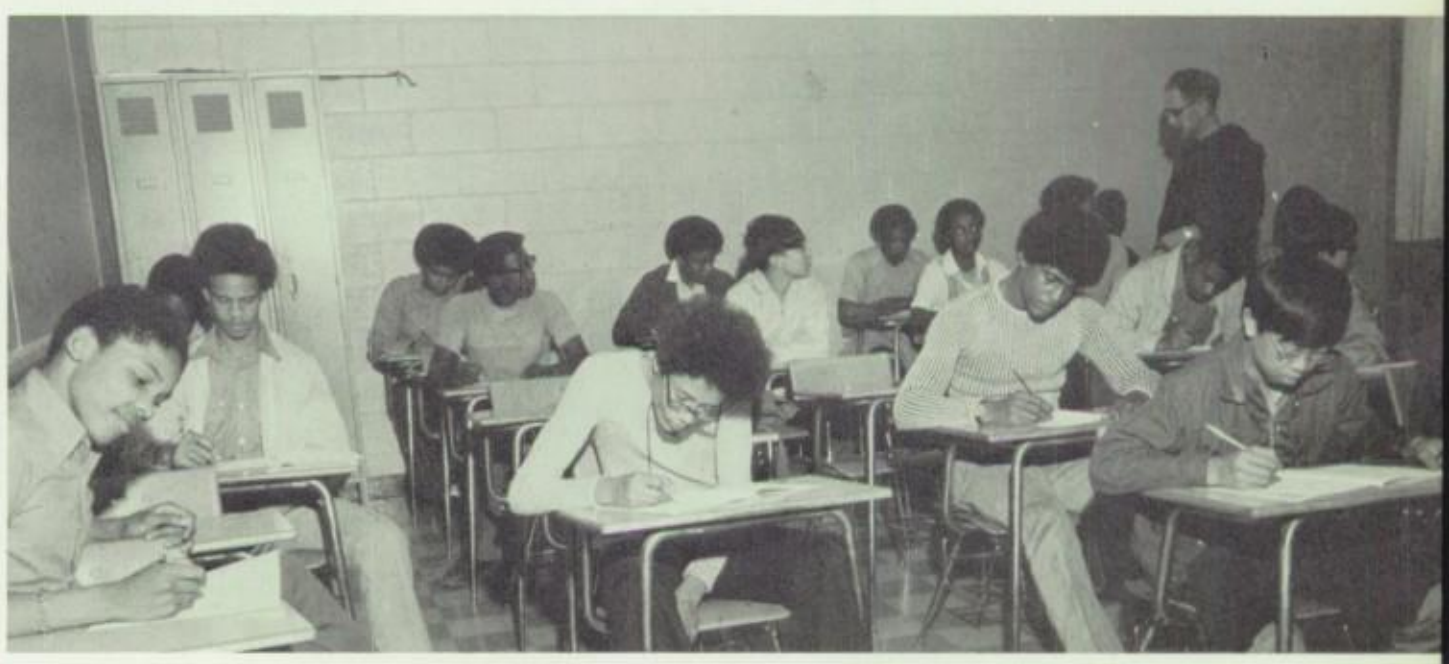




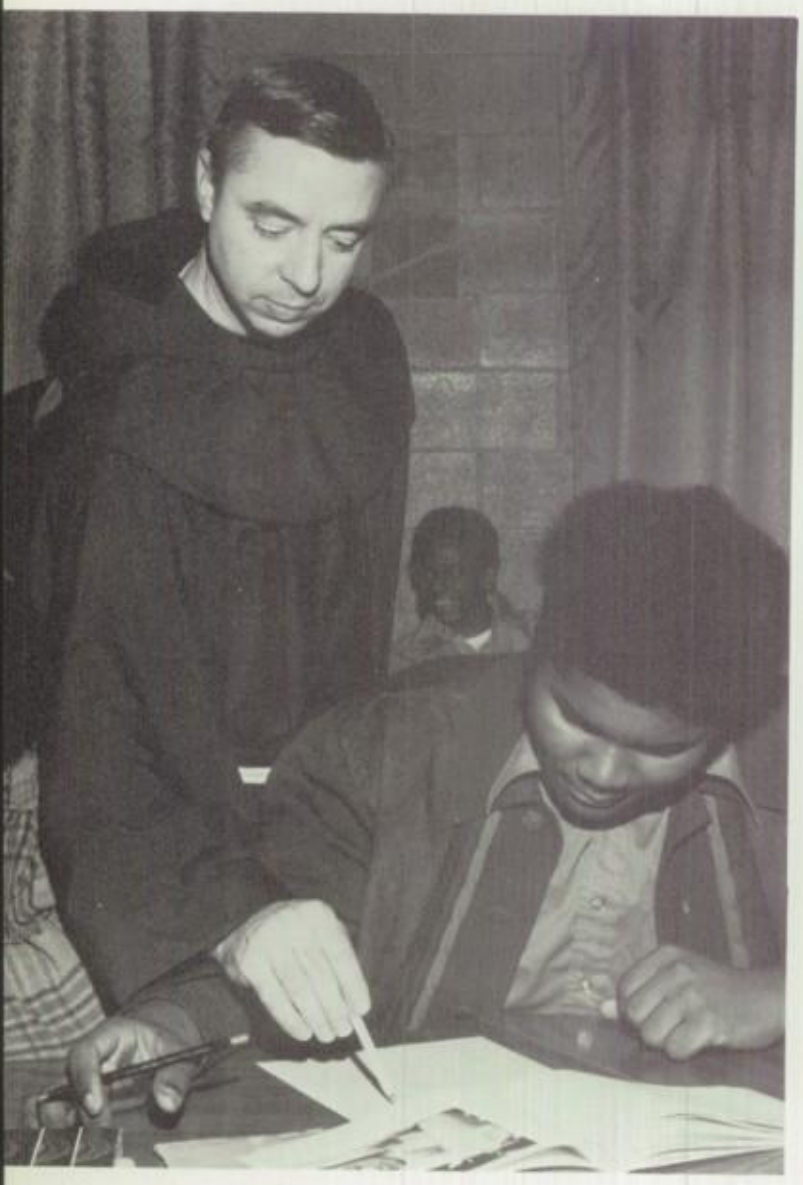


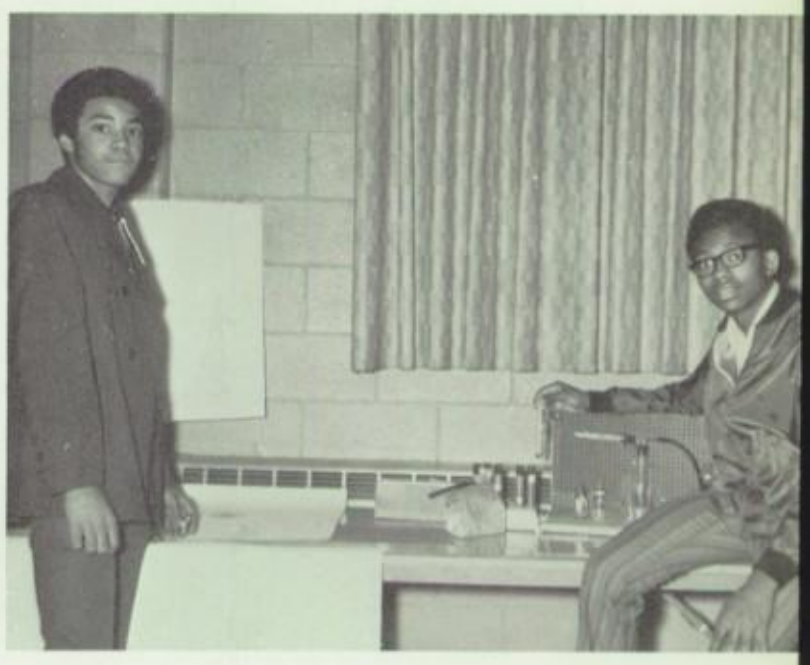
Typing, foreign languages, social studies, and special presentations like the Officer Friendly Program are all practical parts of a Spartan's education.

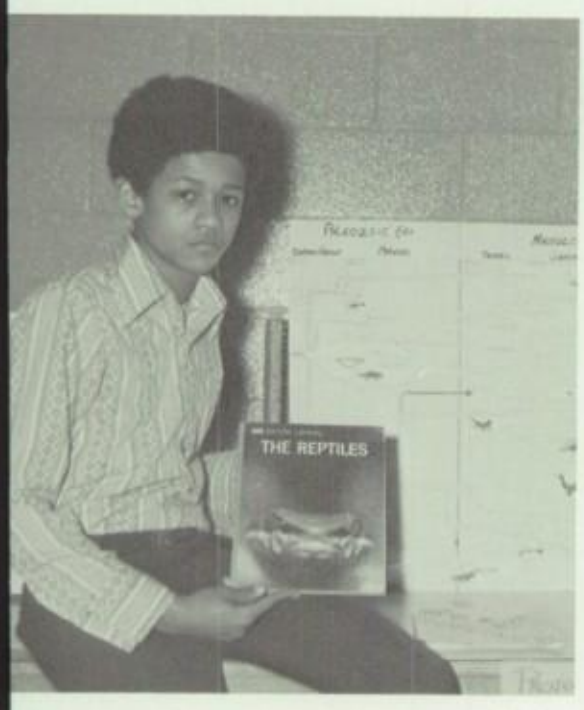




Religion, music, and gym classes are vital parts of the freshman curriculum.







There were many professional exhibits in the Science Fair put on by Mr. Olson and his Freshman students.

The school office, under the watchful eye of Mrs. Sullivan, was a beehive of activity from morning till night.

The Cafeteria staff, directed by Mrs. Matthews, served a delicious lunch on every school day.

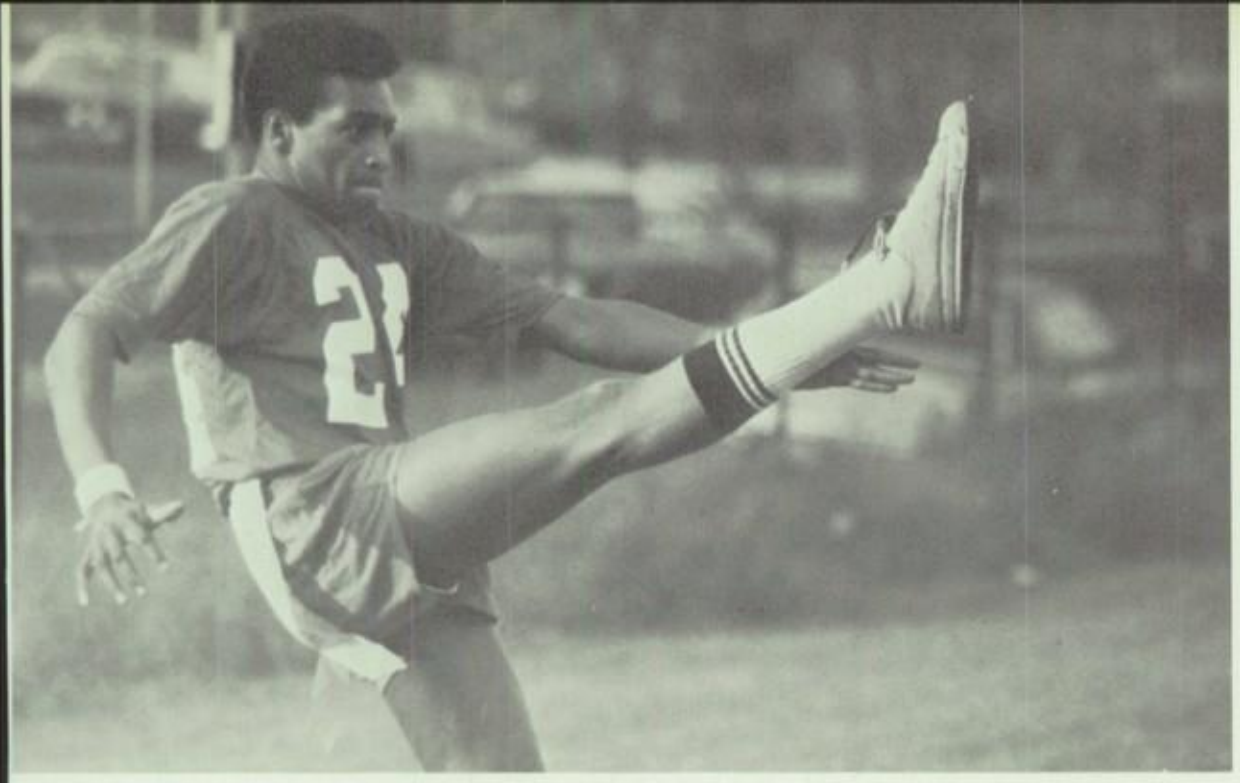
Band members — with the help of Fr. Phil, Mr. Brown, and their parents — raised extra funds by sponsoring a Smorgasbord Dinner and the annual Donkey Basketball Game.

The Spartan Band, under the direction of Mr. Ted Brown, provided musical entertainment for concerts and assemblies.

Mr. Brockhouse inaugurated an Intramural Program that featured Homeroom competition in all major sports.



Coach Lightfoot presented numerous letters and other awards to outstanding Spartans at the annual Athletic Banquet.

HOMECOMING

Wallace Foster and Renee Hunter reigned as King and Queen of the 1972 Homecoming.

Spartans, past and present, danced enthusiastically to the lively music of the band.

CROSS COUNTRY

The starter's gun sounded the beginning of a grueling two-mile run for the championship on a cold and windy Sunday afternoon.

Steve Williams (left) struggled to stay ahead of the pack. Steve Linear (above) tried to pass Ronald Nesbit.

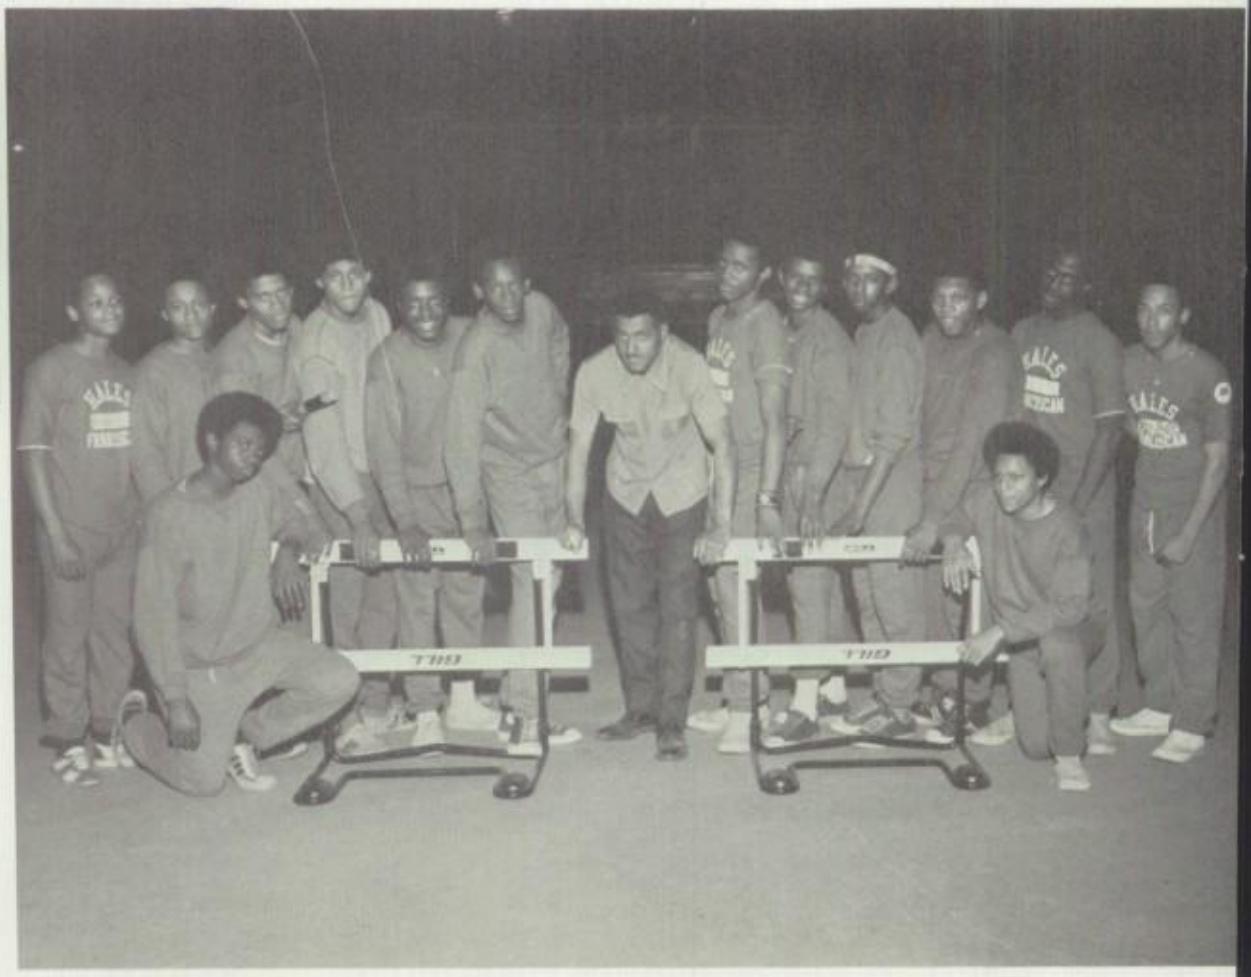
TRACK

The armory, only two blocks from school, was an ideal place to practice before warm weather came.

Coach Lightfoot posed with his runners at the beginning of the spring track season.



Track is a lonely sport that demands many hours of preparation for the short moment of glory.

The nervous anticipation and the victory celebrations are as much a part of every track meet as the events themselves.

The Spartans consistently score points in the shot put and hurdles events.

Hales runners are leaders from start to finish.

Danny Velasquez (left) set a new state and league record with an 18:8 on the 180 yd. low hurdles, set a 9:9 league record for the 100 yd. dash, and won the 220 yd. dash. Raymond Davis set a new J.V. high jump record of 5'1".

The Basketball Varsity: (seated, left to right) Managers Ronald Jackson, Reginald Guignard, and Gregory Robinson; (kneeling) Raymond Davis, Angelo Williams, Michael Dulaney, Duane Gray, Ralph Heath, Darryl Gray; (standing) Asst, Coach Clarence Lightfoot, Gary Kimbrough, Daryll Merchant, Jerrell Fort, Jesse Williams, Alfred Rembert, Anthony Hamblet, Clyde Moore, Head Coach Carl Silverstrini.

Coach Silvestrini led the Spartans to another winning record. They closed the season with 27 wins and 9 losses.

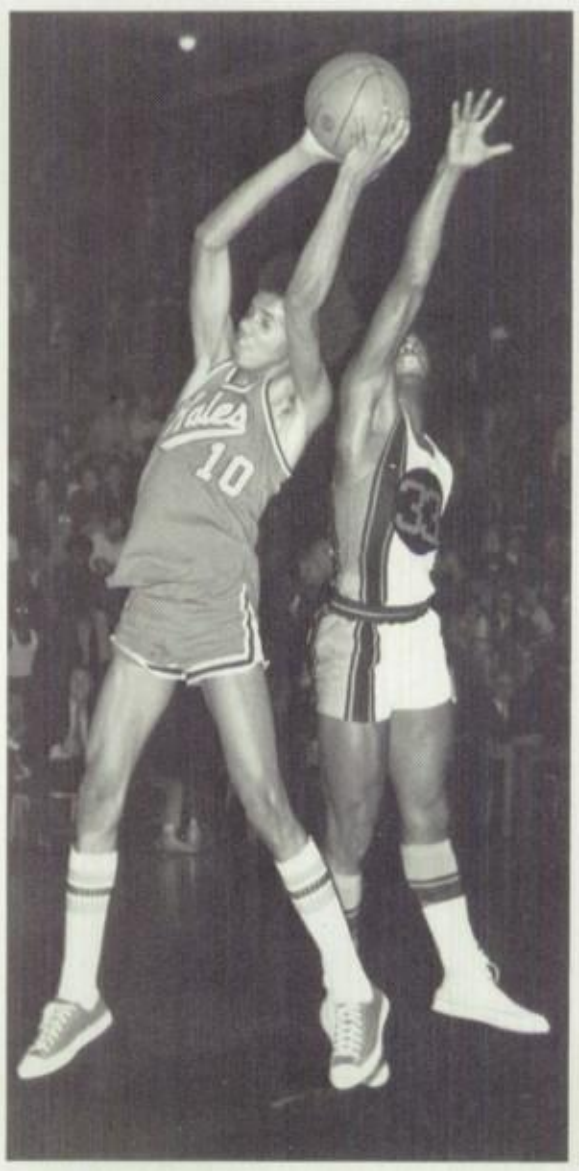
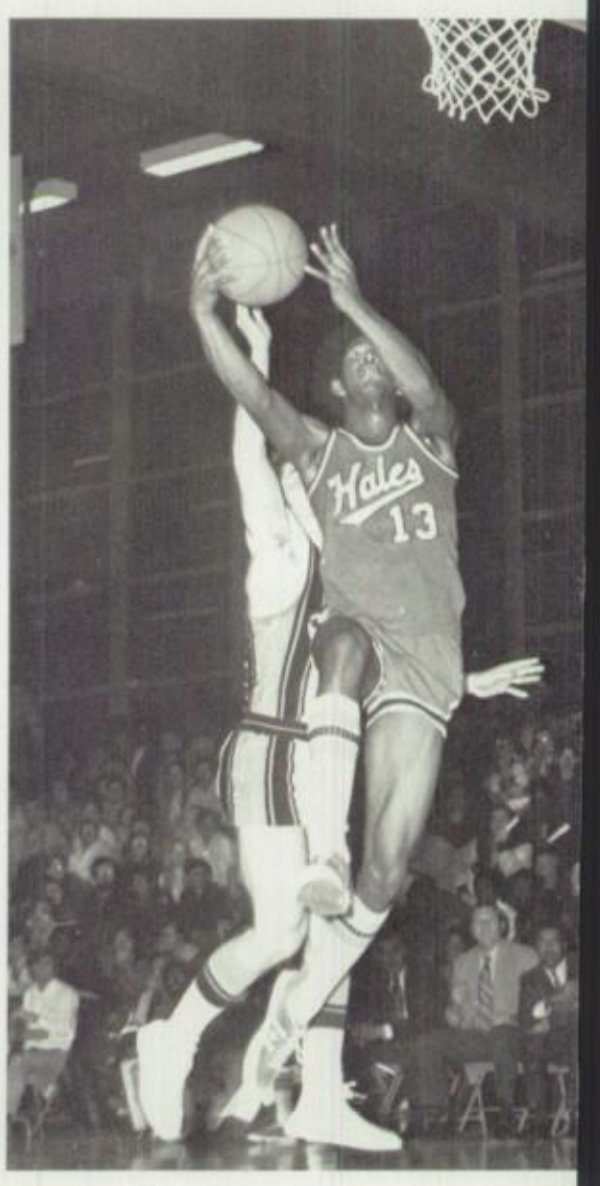
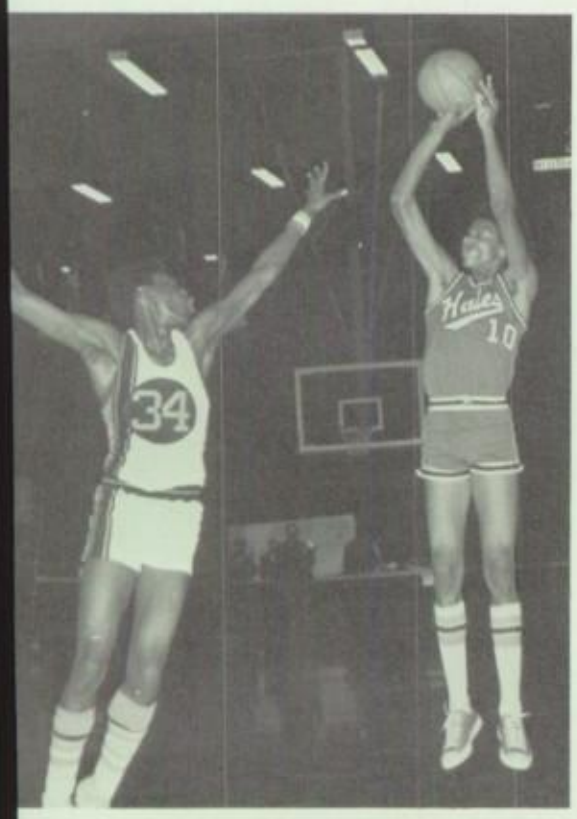
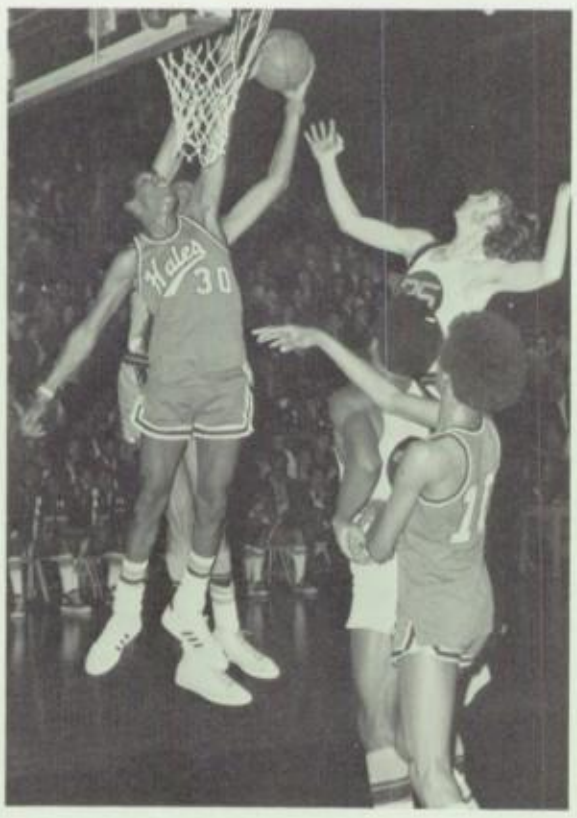
Captains Jerrell Fort and Jesse Williams led the team in scoring and never failed to provide the Spartan fans with an exciting brand of basketball.

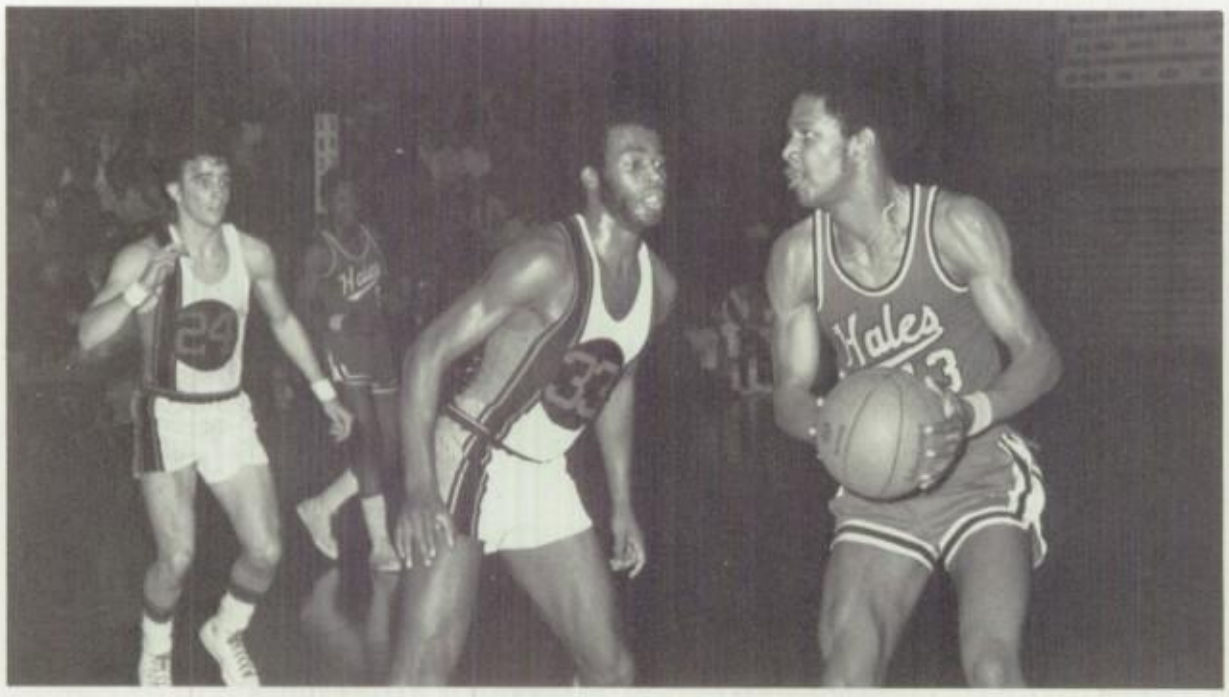


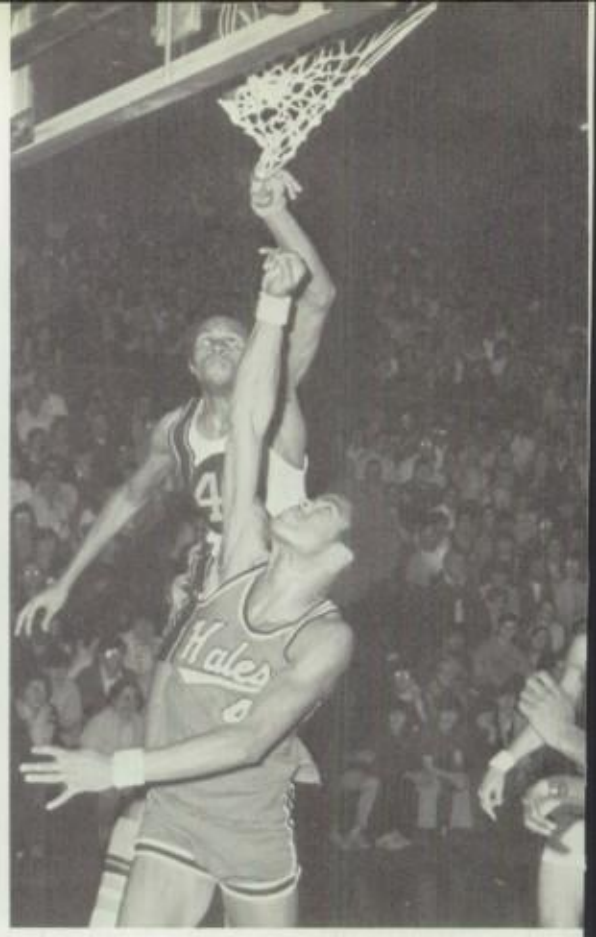


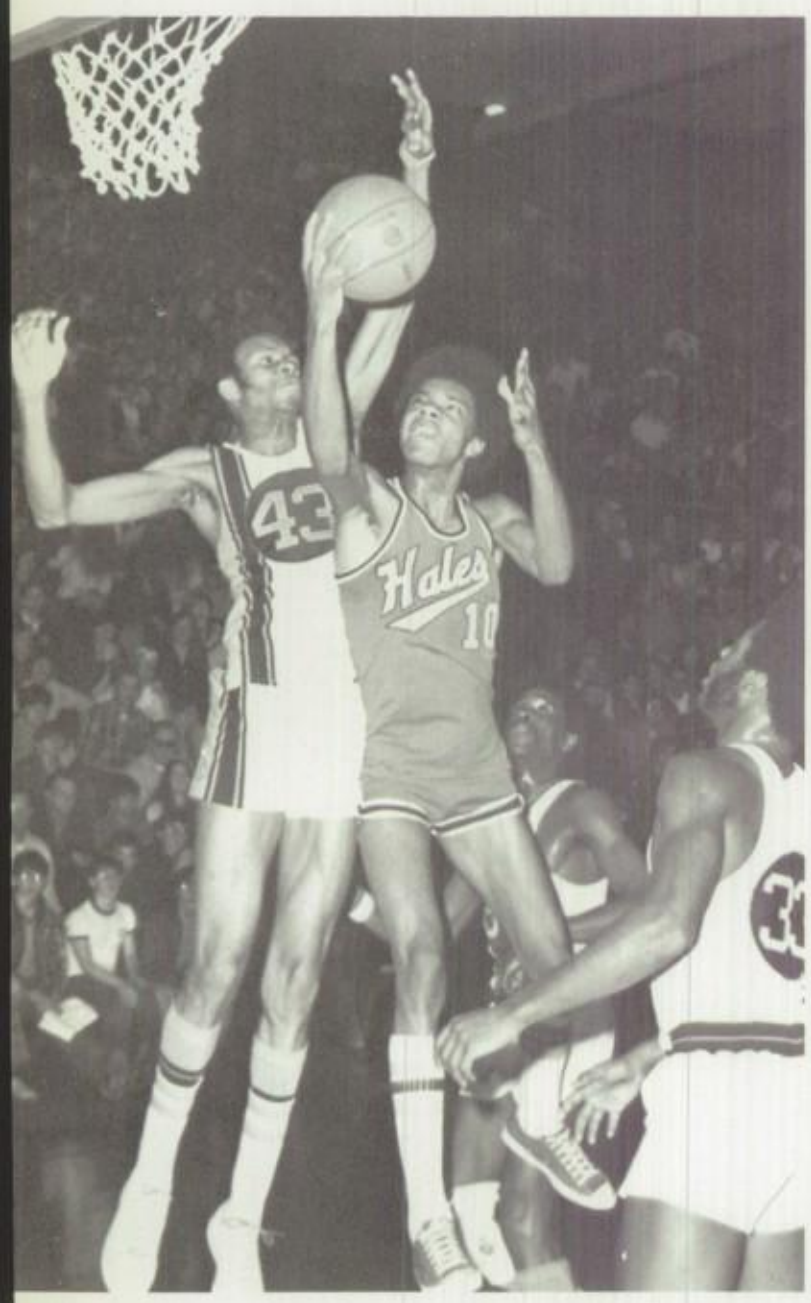
The happy Spartans accepted their trophy after beating Gordon Tech in the championship game of the K. of C. Christmas Tournament.











Playing in their fifth consecutive Catholic League championship game, the Spartan cagers bowed 82-69 to their perennial foes, Gordon Tech.

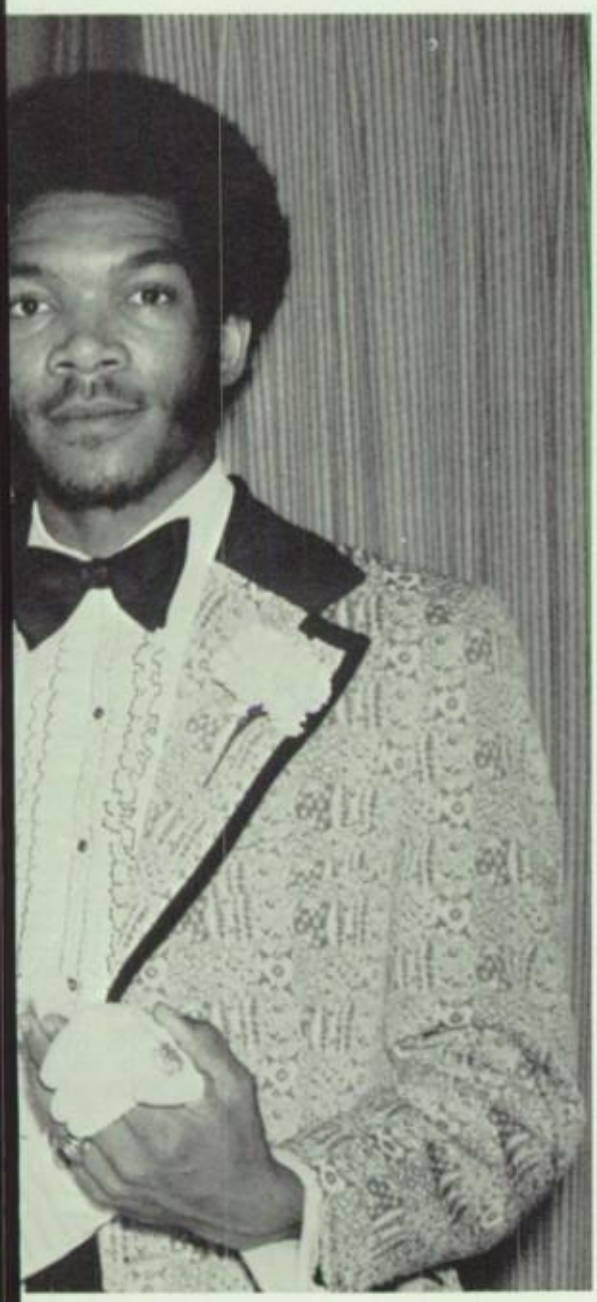
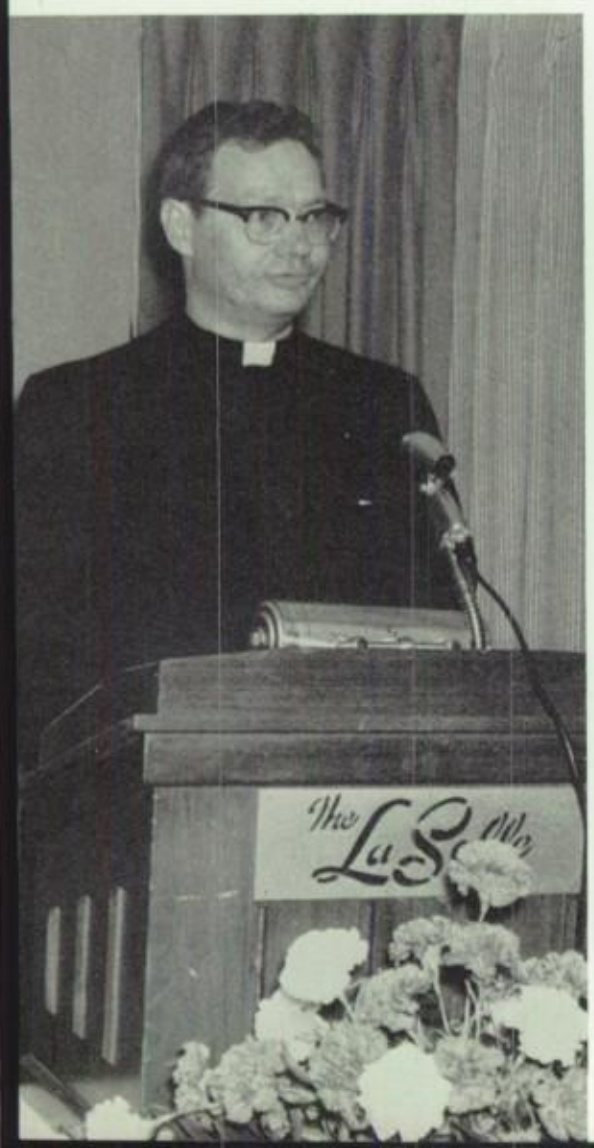
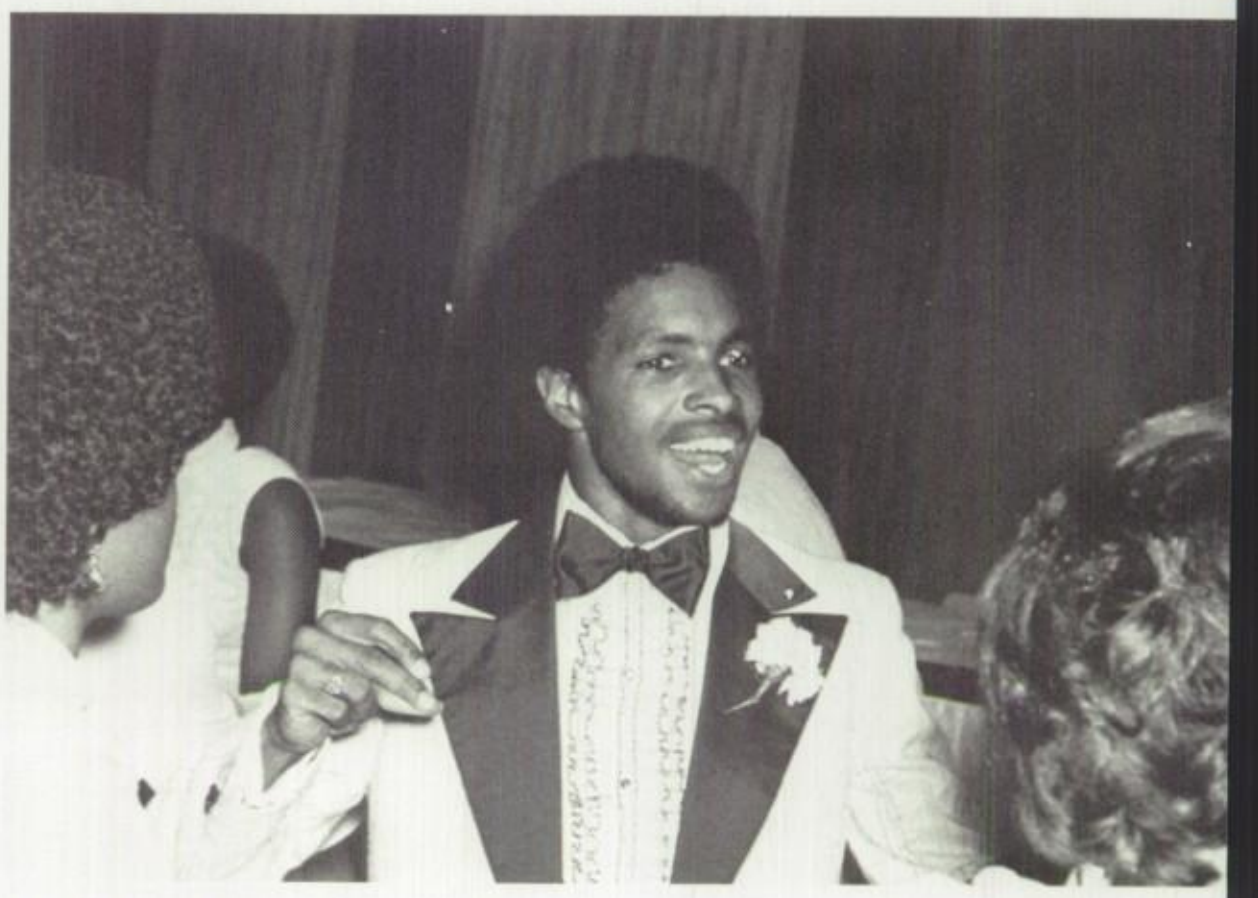
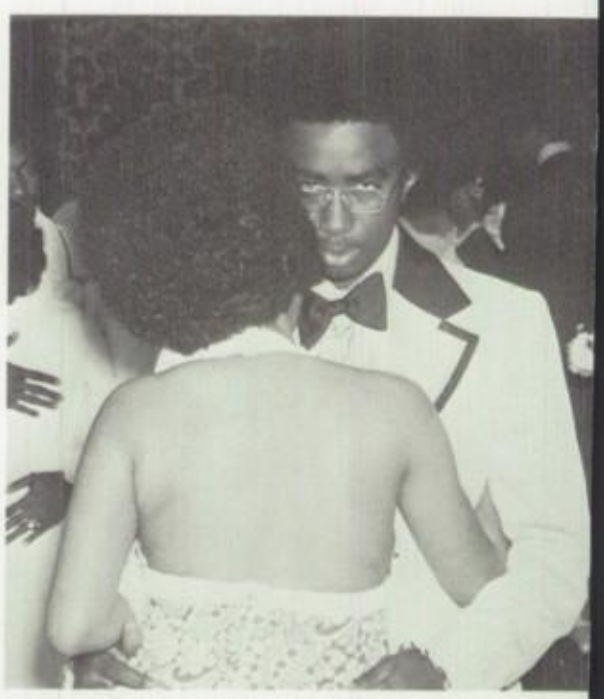
SENIOR PROM

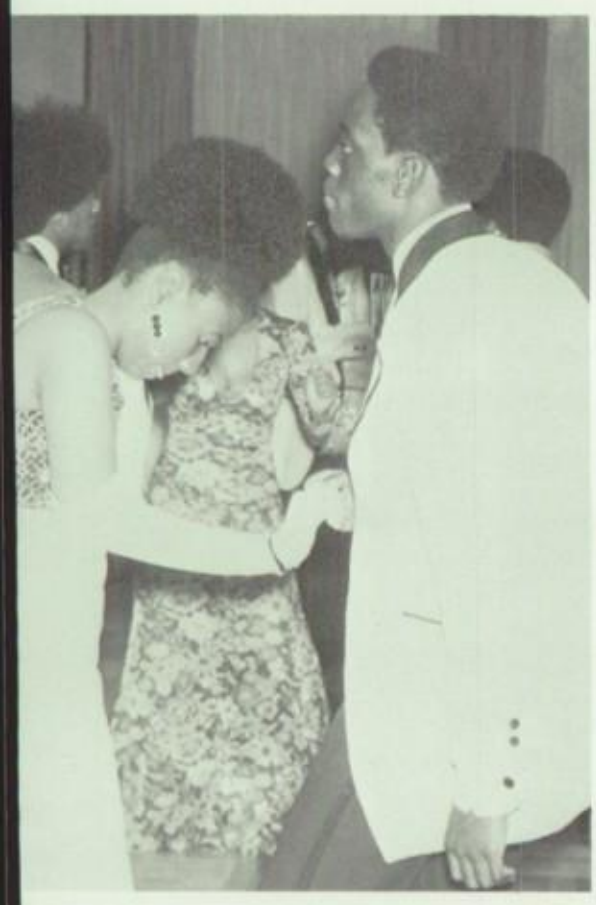
The Senior Prom began with a festive dinner in the Illinois Room of the LaSalle Hotel. Pat Brookens and Marissa Lynn Dobbins presided over the gala evening as King and Queen.







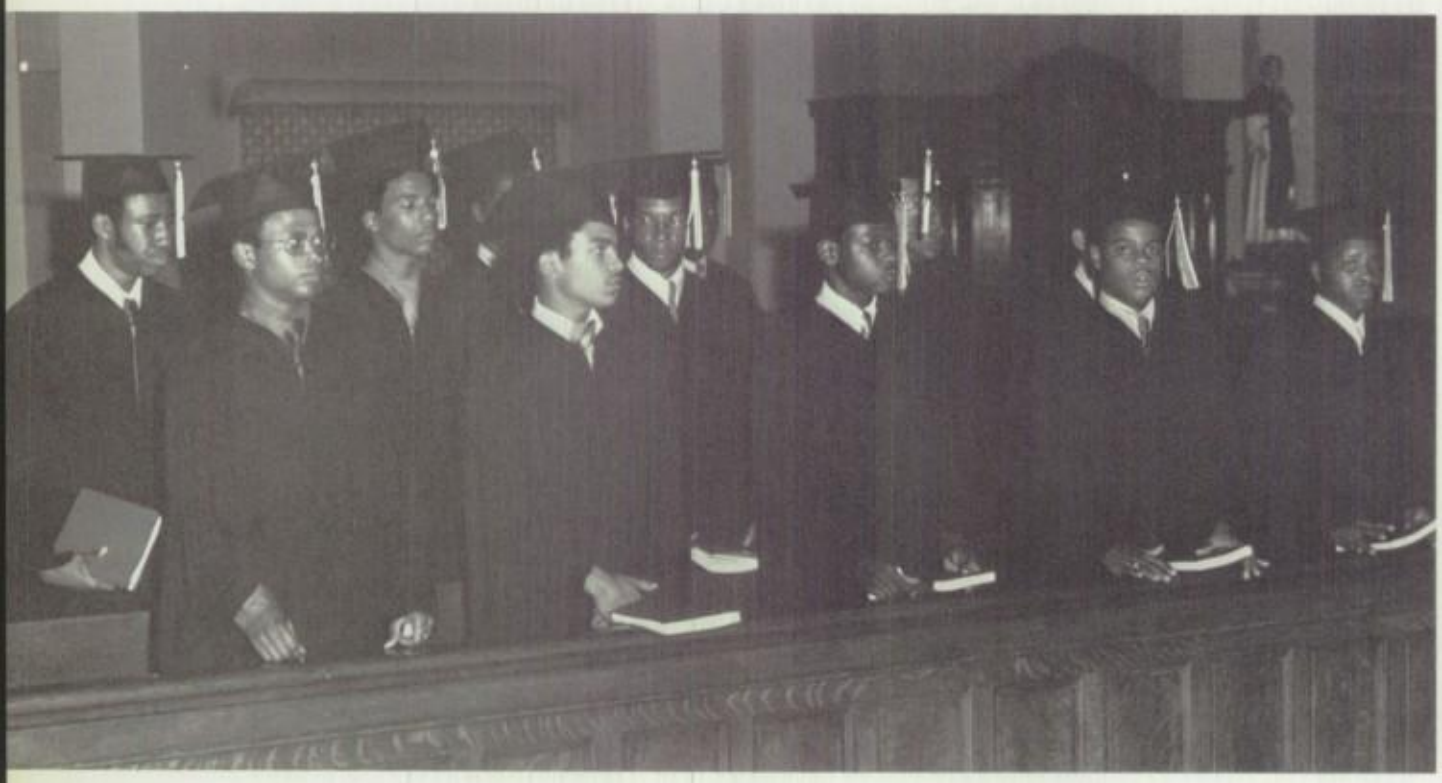


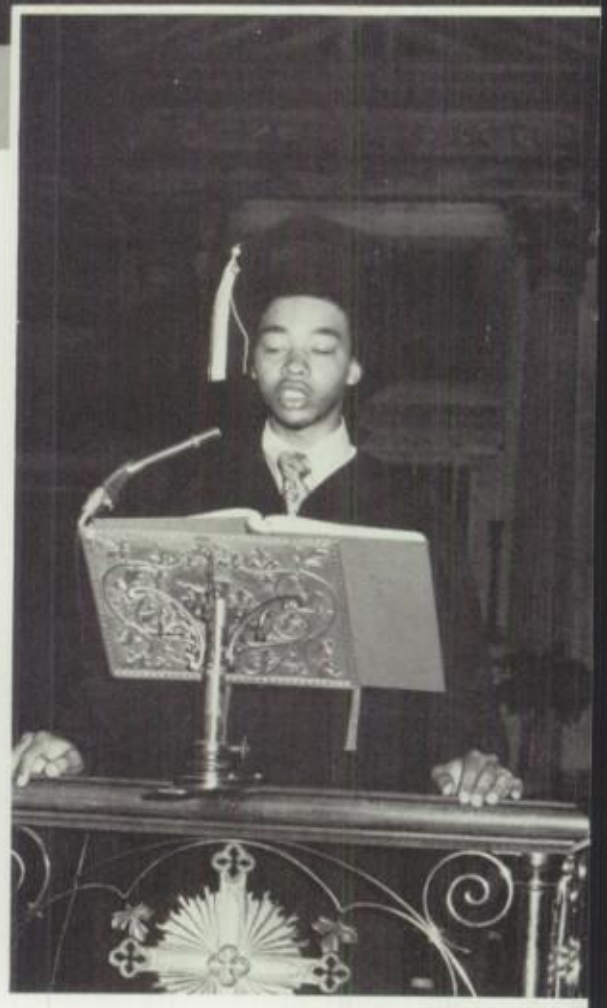


After dinner the King and Queen led student and faculty couples in dance after dance. All too soon came to an end an evening now preserved only in sweet memories and cherished photographs.

GRADUATION

Graduation Day began in Corpus Cristi Church with a Mass celebrated by Fr. Christian, assisted by Fr. Robert and Fr. Eugene.





The principal speaker at the evening commencement exercises was Mr. Roy Wood, News Director of Radio Station WVON.

Auxiliary Bishop Michael R. Dempsey, representing the Archbishop of Chicago, awarded the diplomas to the graduates.

Mr. Moffa, Class Moderator, presided over the exercises. Fr. Randolph, Registrar, presented the seniors for graduation.
